STATEMENT OF FACTS

Your affiant is a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and I am currently assigned to the Atlanta, Georgia Office. Currently, I am tasked with investigating criminal activity in and around the U.S. Capitol grounds on January 6, 2021. As a Special Agent, I am authorized by law or by a Government agency to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, and prosecution of violations of Federal criminal laws.

The U.S. Capitol is secured 24 hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police. Restrictions around the U.S. Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by U.S. Capitol Police. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the U.S. Capitol. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the U.S. Capitol was also closed to members of the public.

On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in separate chambers of the United States Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 p.m. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 p.m., the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Mike Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the U.S. Capitol. As noted above, temporary and permanent barricades were in place around the exterior of the U.S. Capitol building, and U.S. Capitol Police were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol building and the proceedings underway inside.

At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway and the exterior doors and windows of the U.S. Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the U.S. Capitol Police attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 p.m., individuals in the crowd forced entry into the U.S. Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of the U.S. Capitol Police, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts.

Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 p.m., members of the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Mike Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, the joint session of the United States Congress was effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 p.m. Vice President Pence remained in the United States Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the sessions resumed.

During national news coverage of the aforementioned events, video footage which appeared to be captured on mobile devices of persons present on the scene depicted evidence of violations of local and federal law, including scores of individuals inside the U.S. Capitol building without authority to be there.

Evidence Linking BLAS SANTILLAN to Assault on the U.S. Capitol

In or about January 2021, the FBI began receiving tips, reviewing video, and researching open-source materials. Multiple tips and open-source information identified Blas Santillan (“SANTILLAN”) as being involved in the events at the Capitol on January 6, 2021. Specifically, on or about January 8, 2021, the FBI received a tip from an individual (“Individual-1”) stating that he/she was shown posts on SANTILLAN’s Snapchat¹ account, which indicated that SANTILLAN was involved in the riot at the Capitol building on January 6, 2021.

On or about February 26, 2021, the FBI interviewed Individual-1. Individual-1 stated that he/she has known SANTILLAN since high school. Individual-1 explained that his/her co-worker (“Individual-2”) also knows SANTILLAN and is connected with SANTILLAN on Snapchat. According to Individual-1, Individual-2 stated that SANTILLAN posted on Snapchat several videos of himself inside the Capitol during the riot on January 6, 2021. Although most of the videos SANTILLAN posted on Snapchat had since expired and were no longer viewable, Individual-2 was able to show Individual-1 one video that SANTILLAN had reposted and was still available for viewing. Individual-1 used his/her cell phone to take a video of SANTILLAN’s video as it played on Individual-2’s cell phone in Snapchat. The video first shows SANTILLAN’s face and then it pans around what appears to be the rotunda of the Capitol building. SANTILLAN can be heard saying, “Look at this. All this stuff.” Two screenshots of the video are shown below.

Individual-1 told the FBI that the individual in the video was definitely SANTILLAN. The FBI also showed Individual-1 SANTILLAN's driver's license photo, and Individual-1 stated that the photo was also definitely SANTILLAN.

On or about February 26, 2021, the FBI interviewed Individual-2. Individual-2 stated that he/she has known SANTILLAN for most of his/her life. Individual-2 stated that he/she is connected with SANTILLAN on Snapchat. Individual-2 told the FBI that on January 6, 2021, Individual-2 observed between five and fifteen videos posted by SANTILLAN to SANTILLAN's Snapchat account showing the riot at the Capitol. According to Individual-2, the videos appeared to be captured close to the guards trying to block entry. According to Individual-2, one video showed SANTILLAN walking through the front door and SANTILLAN can be heard saying, "I made it in." According to Individual-2, the last video he/she observed from SANTILLAN's Snapchat account on January 6, 2021, showed SANTILLAN walking down the street with a chair and a pole strapped to his back, and SANTILLAN can be heard saying, "I got a chair, a pole, and a book."

The FBI showed Individual-2 the image of SANTILLAN from the Snapchat video pictured above, as well as SANTILLAN's driver's license photo and Individual-2 confirmed that the person in the video and the photo on the driver's license were definitely SANTILLAN.

In the course of investigating the January 6, 2021 riots at the Capitol building, law enforcement has obtained numerous photos and videos from in and around the Capitol building taken by the rioters that day. One particular video shows what appears to be SANTILLAN in the Rotunda of the Capitol building talking on a cell phone. Screenshots of the video are shown below. SANTILLAN is circled in red.

In another video obtained by law enforcement, SANTILLAN is seen outside of the Capitol Building's Rotunda Doors shouting at the rioters and encouraging them to enter the Capitol building. Screenshots from the video are shown below.

In the video, SANTILLAN shouts the following at the rioters, encouraging them to enter the Capitol Building:

It seems like you're that weak, because I'm the only one that was willing to do something! I'm the only one that was willing to kick that door! Who else is willing to storm in there? No one! . . . Who are you! Who are you! You're not America! You're not America! . . . Americans do not sit by while people take your rights! You are lazy Americans! That is what you are! You are used to sitting on your couch, and watching your Netflix, and listening to your shows, and watching YouTube! You do not know what freedom is. . . . Freedom is doing what you want! Freedom! Let's go! . . . Is this your house?

Capitol Building security video from inside the Rotunda doors shows that at approximately 2:46 p.m., an individual believed to be SANTILLAN entered the Capitol Building. At the time he entered, there were at least two Capitol police officers standing in the doorway attempting to stop the rioters from entering the Capitol. The video shows SANTILLAN pushing his way around one of the officers so he can enter the building. Screenshots from the security video are shown below. SANTILLAN is circled in red.

Additionally, Capitol Building security video from inside the Rotunda shows SANTILLAN entering the Rotunda at approximately 2:46 p.m. and walking through the Rotunda. In the video SANTILLAN appears to be holding up his cell phone to record video in the same location as the video described above that was posted to SANTILLAN's Snapchat account. SANTILLAN then walks to the center of the Rotunda and appears to be shouting. SANTILLAN then walks down the hallway to the south of the Rotunda and disappears out of camera view. Screenshots from the video are shown below. SANTILLAN is circled in red.

Based on the aforementioned evidence, there is probable cause to believe that SANTILLAN was present inside the U.S. Capitol building during the riot and related offenses that occurred at the U.S. Capitol building, located at 1 First Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20510 on January 6, 2021 and participated in the obstruction of the Congressional proceedings.

Accordingly, your affiant submits there is probable cause to believe that SANTILLAN violated 18 U.S.C. § 1752(a)(1) and (2), which makes it a crime to (1) knowingly enter or remain in any restricted building or grounds without lawful authority to do so; and (2) knowingly, and with intent to impede or disrupt the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions, engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct in, or within such proximity to, any restricted building or grounds when, or so that, such conduct, in fact, impedes or disrupts the orderly conduct of Government business or official functions; or attempts or conspires to do so. For purposes of Section 1752 of Title 18, a “restricted building” includes a posted, cordoned off, or otherwise restricted area of a building or grounds where the President or other person protected by the Secret Service, including the Vice President, is or will be temporarily visiting; or any building or grounds so restricted in conjunction with an event designated as a special event of national significance.

Your affiant submits there is also probable cause to believe that SANTILLAN violated 40 U.S.C. § 5104(e)(2)(D) and (G), which makes it a crime to willfully and knowingly (D) utter loud, threatening, or abusive language, or engage in disorderly or disruptive conduct, at any place in the Grounds or in any of the Capitol Buildings with the intent to impede, disrupt, or disturb the orderly conduct of a session of Congress or either House of Congress, or the orderly conduct in that building of a hearing before, or any deliberations of, a committee of Congress or either House of Congress; and (G) parade, demonstrate, or picket in any of the Capitol Buildings.
